THIS FINAL ORDER IS NONPRECEDENTIAL<sup>1</sup>

Pete Woodland, Bowie, Maryland, for the appellant.

FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant has filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which dismissed his removal appeal as untimely filed without good cause shown. Generally, we grant petitions such as this one only in the following circumstances: the initial decision contains erroneous findings of material fact;

<sup>1</sup> A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117\(c\).

the initial decision is based on an erroneous interpretation of statute or regulation or the erroneous application of the law to the facts of the case; the administrative judge's rulings during either the course of the appeal or the initial decision were not consistent with required procedures or involved an abuse of discretion, and the resulting error affected the outcome of the case; or new and material evidence or legal argument is available that, despite the petitioner's due diligence, was not available when the record closed. Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 1201.115 (5 C.F.R. § 1201.115). After fully considering the filings in this appeal, we conclude that the petitioner has not established any basis under section 1201.115 for granting the petition for review. Therefore, we DENY the petition for review and AFFIRM the initial decision, which is now the Board's final decision. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.113\(b\).

¶2 On petition for review, the appellant raises the following arguments: his appeal was filed only 1 day past the filing deadline; his personal circumstances establish good cause for the filing delay; and his efforts toward obtaining employment have been harmed by the agency's negative employment reference. Petition for Review (PFR) File, Tab 1 at 2. The agency has filed a response. PFR File, Tab 3. With its response, the agency has resubmitted the initial decision and documentation that was a part of the record before the administrative judge. Id. at 11-56; Initial Appeal File (IAF), Tabs 1-2, Tab 7 at 8-29; see Meier v. Department of the Interior, 3 M.S.P.R. 247, 256 (1980) (finding that evidence that already is a part of the record is not new).

¶3 After considering the appellant's arguments on review, we discern no reason to disturb the administrative judge's well-reasoned findings that the appellant's appeal was untimely filed by at least 10 days, and that he has failed to show good cause to excuse his untimely filing. PFR File, Tab 1 at 2; IAF, Tab 16, Initial Decision at 5-11; see 5 C.F.R. § 1201.56\(b\)\(2\)\(i\)\(B\) (providing that an appellant bears the burden of proving by preponderant evidence the timeliness of his appeal); see also 5 C.F.R. § 1201.22\(c\) (explaining that the Board will dismiss an untimely filed appeal unless a good reason for the delay is shown). Moreover, we find that the appellant's argument regarding his unsuccessful attempts to obtain employment is not relevant to the dispositive timeliness issue, and thus, provides no reason to disturb the initial decision. PFR File, Tab 1 at 2.

¶4 Accordingly, we affirm the initial decision.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS<sup>2</sup>

You may obtain review of this final decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(a\)\(1\). By statute, the nature of your claims determines the time limit for seeking such review and the appropriate forum with which to file. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\). Although we offer the following summary of available appeal rights, the Merit Systems Protection Board does not provide legal advice on which option is most appropriate for your situation and the rights described below do not represent a statement of how courts will rule regarding which cases fall within their jurisdiction. If you wish to seek review of this final decision, you should immediately review the law applicable to your claims and carefully follow all filing time limits and requirements. Failure to file within the applicable time limit may result in the dismissal of your case by your chosen forum.

Please read carefully each of the three main possible choices of review below to decide which one applies to your particular case. If you have questions about whether a particular forum is the appropriate one to review your case, you should contact that forum for more information.
